Yearbook Staff Looks Back Through History

LIBERTY UNION HIGH SCHOOL'S first building looked like this on Second St. when the campus opened for business back in 1902; it contained offices, classrooms and library under one roof.

COMPLETED in 1920, this building carried a price tag of $93,000 and was judged one of the finest in interior with an 800 seat auditorium. Graceful columns decorated the front.

BUS NO. 2 has changed somewhat since this earlier model. The Dal Porto brothers of Oakley ran the bus lines which consisted of 24 passenger busses with wooden-spoked wheels.

E.G. NASH and B.J. Callahan smile for the camera as they stand in front of the building that was destroyed in a fire in 1963. (see Pic. #3)

CHEERLEADING CHORES seem to be the topic of discussion as Rally Squad members resplendent in their "longest" quilt dresses take a break during a home football game

LIBERTY football players converge on an opponent to apply a crushing tackle in a game played on an away field.

FRANK DAVIS smiles with football in hand wearing his 1952 "modern" football uniform.

Urenda Helps Raise Funds For Athletics

"JUST ONE OF THE BOYS!" Paul Urenda strikes a pose in the annual benefit to help raise funds for the athletic department, while the others wait their turn.

WAITING while a teacher explains a problem this boy shows the correct style of the day with slicked hair and high-water cuffs.

MARY LOU BURROUGHS cooks up something in the kitchen of what is now C-Wing. She doesn't seem to be too pleased with the results.

THIS fine old building had to be bull-dozed in the late 60's because of a state law-Field At. It served as a second gym and locker room.

FFA SWEETHEARTS journey to a nearby ranch to use a more rustic background in keeping with their "cal-girl" outfits.

MISS ETHEL VAN TASSEL walks out of the Roman banquet. Each year the Latin Club use to don togas to celebrate the coming of Spring.

SUE FORTNER (nee Gauger) smiles happily as she is installed as a member of the Rainbow Girls. The picture was taken when Sue was a student at Liberty not a staff member.

THOUGH the picture is over 25 years old this building, behind the shop teacher, is still in use on our campus. The only major change is newer equipment and different staff members.

Candid Look At Different Student Activities

TOP FIVE CANDIDATES for Homecoming Queen in the early fifties, strike a pose for the probing lens of the annual staff photographer.

CAPTURED by the ever present photographer this young Liberty High student pauses for a moment outside "C" Wing-one of the wings to survive the '63 fire.

THREE members of the Annual Staff work on an earlier edition of the LION yearbook.

LION yearbook staff members work together trying to put the finishing touches on the 1949 annual before an April deadline.

THE whole operation of Liberty Union High School in the early 50's was almost entirely under one roof.

PEP CLUB and GAA member practices on an old upright piano. The young lady wears her Pep Club beannie and GAA sweater, rolled socks and plaid skirt.

SONYA MILLER just one in a long list of girls who have helped faculty and staff members mimeographs the daily announcements.

Styles, Dances Change Over The Decades

ALL dressed up to show the latest fashions are these seven young ladies.

WATCHING the teacher demonstrate how to use a machine is a 1950's student.

E.G. NASH worked at Liberty for 30 years as a teacher and principal from 1917-1947.

CHEERING madly these girls help Rally Squad in urging on the Lion football team to another victory-circa 1953.

Nash Serves As Principal-Teacher, 1917-1947

SADIE HAWKINS dances were a highlight of social season in the early 50's.

AD SHOTS haven't changed much as these girls group around a brand new 1951 Chevrolet.

CLASS pictures were group shots years ago as it was too expensive to have too many photos in an annual.

Football Plays Large Role In LUHS History

PRACTICING his pass catching before a game, Lee Laird concentrates on seeing the ball into his hands.

U.S. HISTORY and the Civil War have been a part of the curriculum at Liberty for many years.

TAKING a few minutes to rest these two football players are captured for posterity by the camera.

"GRADUATES ONLY" says the sign as a teacher tries to keep others out.

STRAW clings to these girls after they extradite themselves from the hay toss.

PROUDLY posing for a graduation picture these boys wait eagerly for the ceremony marking the end of their high school career.

"TURNIPS ANYONE?" This young lady displays her wares as she sits on the stage at the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Top Five Vie For Homecoming Queen Crown

PRESENTING the Homecoming Queen with her boquet of flowers is the Superintendent of Liberty.

WHICH one of these five lovely young ladies would be announced as the next Homecoming Queen.

BUD WALDIE waits to be served a refreshment at the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Caroline Le Moines helps two other girls in the booth.

EMERSON teams up with five other full-spirited students to ride in the annual Homecoming Parade.

PRACTICE and more practice will help build the skills needed to be better musicians as these three work away.

MEMBERS of the LUHS marching band pause for a few minutes at an afternoon, home football game.

BANDS looked a little more sedate and played much slower, softer music; this band is for one of the formal dances.

POSING PROUDLY, members of the LUHS Marching Band under the direction of Allan Jones wait for the photographer.

Bronzan, Ferrill Head Boys' Block 'L'

DANCING ends as the girl steps back and looks up at her date. Formal dances then as now required a pretty flower for the girl from the guy.

"DON'T drink up all the profits." These guys are helping to set up for the coke sales with real wooden cases and glass bottles.

FRESHMEN HAZING (initiation) in the early 50's was looked upon with glee by upperclassmen and hated and feared by those poor students being put through their paces.

LOUISE MILLER instructs her students in the correct techniques of typing, and is backed by the Remington Standard Typewriter Chart.

Capping four years of school at L.U.H.S the Class of '79 graduated on June 8, 1979. This class showed some very strong and unusual characteristics- they were led by the same president for four years-Anna Juarez and won the float competition at Homecoming four straight times.

Starting as freshmen in the fall of 1975 the class elected as first year officers Anna, president; Debbie Sapp, vice-president; Yvonne St. John, treasurer; with Mr. John Armenta and Mrs. June Drake as advisors. Highlighting the year was capturing first place in the Homecoming Parade Competition.

As Sophomores the class elected Denise Mc Campbell secretary; Regina Rios, vice-president; and Tracy Payne, treasurer. Working with the Junior Class the Class of '79 sponsored a joint Hop/Prom and selected Gina Combs as queen with Ron Sapp King.

"Always and Forever" set the theme for the Class of '79's Prom as they were led by Regina Rios, vice-president; Mary Rosa, secretary, and Lisa Schwitters, treasurer with Mr. Joe Tovar taking Mr. Armenta's place as one of the advisors.

Capturing the spirit Jugs for the Class of '79 were Maria Hampton and Troy Beaton, Freshman; Kelli Kurtz and Mark Maggiori, Sophomore; Diane Mariscal and Doug McCall, Juniors and this year Julie Bettencourt and Ron Sapp.

Putting it all together the Class of '79 captured the coveted Spirit Trophy during Homecoming Week, earned the first prize in the float competition, sponsored a successful Senior Ball at Lake Merritt, journeyed to Disneyland for "Grad Nite", sold suckers and frisbees, hosted three after-game dances and helped elect Yvonne St. John as Homecoming Queen.

Leading the Class of '79 in its final year were Anna, president; Yvonne, vice-president; Connie Tovar, treasurer; Brenda Cook, secretary; Ms. Toni Gull replaced Mrs. June Drake as advisor. The class won the pie-eating contest and tricycle races during competition on Homecoming Day.

CLASSES

Coach Mark Watson, assisted by Jerry Lilley and John Rodgers, led the varsity football team to a second place finish in league. Team captains were Russell Probst, Wally Wisner and Mark Bidle. Other awards were announced as: most valuable lineman- Mike Hopkins, most valuable back- Benito Jauregui, Isabella Gill Most Inspirational- Russell Probst, most valuable player- Wally Wisner. The varsity team lost Craig Chaves in the East Union game with a knee injury and went on to win the all-important Homecoming game.

In other football news, the JV team was coached by Jerry Black and Dennis Henderson while Joe Tovar worked with the freshman team. The freshman selected Clint Colburn as captain and Ron Enos as most valuable.

Showing excellent improvement, the girls' cross country team lacked depth to be a consistent winner. They were led by most valuable runner and captain Pam Spiess and were coached by Keith Dawson. Dan Olan, captain, and Jesus Puente, most valuable runner, helped the boys' cross country team that consisted of mostly sophomores and freshmen runners. Each boy on the team had improved their times by the end of the season.

Highlighting the girls' varsity basketball team's season was a win over Las Lomas who had not lost a league game in two years. This year's team captains were Wendy Fortner and Diane Torrez. Wendy led the team in scoring and rebounding and thus was selected as most valuable player. Wendy also made first team all-league and Rosalie Ramirez was named to the honorable mention team. The coach is Fred Valverde.

Tony Amarl, most valuable player, helped the frosh team to a second place finish in league. Coached by Roy Ghiggeri, the frosh team lost 3 of its 4 overtime games and finished the season with four straight victories.

The boys' varsity basketball team was captained by Larry Pato and finished third in league. Coach Jerry Miller felt the big moments of the season were a seven game win streak, big wins over first place Campolindo and over Miramonte and going to the play-offs.

Because of an eligibility ruling by the league, the JV basketball team though co-champs, were denied their share of the title. Most valuable players were Francisco Zepeda and Lenny Cross; captains were Richard Cbral and DeAngelo Hernandez. Coach Roy Ghiggeri felt the team effort was excellent and earned a 10-2 league and 16-5 overall record

SPORTS

In Spring sports Coach Jerry Miller guided the girls' JV softball team to a perfect 12-0 league mark and earned for them a league championship. Team captain was Terry Smith.

Also champions in spring sports was the Frosh-Soph track team. Coach Dawson feels that with the dual meet championship for the team the track future for the Lions looks good.

Coached by Kaye Axelgard, the girls' softball team shared the league championship with Acalanes. Marilyn Walker was selected as co-captain, co-most valuable, while Diane Torrez was outstanding defensive player. FAL selections were first team: Jan Walters, Marilyn Walker; second team: Diane Torrez; and honorable mentions were Annie Ramos and Rose Ramirez.

Led by most valuable runner and captain, Rod McKinney, the boys' varsity track team had only 17 members but those individuals, including Wally Wisner, Pete Martinez, Rory Cannon, Mike Hopkins, Ron Secrest, Ben Jauregui and Tony Contiente, did well.

Winning the Alhambra Easter Tournament, the varsity baseball team also won second place in league with an 8-4 mark. The team was captained by Tom Lawler and Mike Morado and selected Mark Biddle and Tom most-valuable. The top hitter award went to Mike McCauley with a .444 average (Mike also won the league batting crown); top defensive player award was earned by Nick Capsalaris. All-league selections were first team- Tom, Mark, Mike and Larry; second team- Miles McCauley; honorable mention- Nick and Mike Morado.

Finishing third, the girls' track team had its record of 20 straight dual meets spanning three years snapped. Coach Barbara Whitfield cited numerous individual efforts- Wendy Fortner was the only all-league champion in the shot-put, Shelly Poerio broke her own record in the 440 and the mile relay team of Julie Hampton, Cindy Robertson, Jeanne Gallegos and Shelly, broke the school record.

"Beating Antioch and Pittsburg was very rewarding to the JV baseball team", remarked Coach Tovar. The team selected Dennis Knorr as captain and Mike Joksch, most valuable player.

Capping the sport's year was the announcement of Outstanding Senior Athletes- Larry Pato and Marilyn Walker and Scholar-Athlete- Diane Torrez.

KEVIN VORNHAGEN tackles his opponent in an away contest. Kevin is in his second year on the Varsity team and was saluted to honorable mention F.A.L. team.

HEAD COACH Mark Watson talks to the student body at the last football rally before the Miramonte game. The Lions fell just short - losing 14-12.

MIKE DICKINSON, Brent Last, Mike Pallidino and Carl McCormick watch the action from the sidelines at a home contest, as the Lions lead late in the fourth quarter.

RON SECREST, Mike Pallidino and David Contiente stare intently at another crucial home contest. Mike and David both earned honorable mention.

COLLECTING quickly on the opponent's ball carrier is Steve Aberle, while David Contiente and Russell Probst rush up to assist or fall on a possible fumble.

PUTTING on make-up to become Don Quixote of Cervantes "Man of La Mancha", is Dan Uroff, the main character.

DAN UROFF, starring as Don Quixote, sings about the mad knight and his impossible dream.

IN order to save his manuscripts, Don Quixote and Sancho agree to put on a play for the prisoners.

WAITING for his cue, Scott King, as Tenerio, intently watches the action in Man of La Mancha.

Uroff Is Quixote In 'Man Of La Mancha'

DON QUIXOTE, the lead role in the play "Man of La Mancha" is portrayed by Dan Uroff. In this scene Don Quixote addresses the muleteers, rough highwayman. The playmakers presented this action in the Activity Center early in the year.

SANCHO, Mike Puente, helps Cervantes set the stage for the play within the play.

PRISONERS who will play parts in Cervantes play are Chris Burnett, Padre; Jenine Dessaussois, Antonia; and Diane Loreda, Aldonza.

MULETEERS-Scott King, Mark Giannini, Chris Rodgers and Marty Main call for Aldonza, the Kitchen maid.

MIKE PUENTE gestures to the prisoners as he indicates what character he will portray.

CHRIS BLUMEN flexes his muscles in his role of Lewis, stepbrother to Pippin, in the Activity Center.

WITH THE ENTIRE CAST on stage, the players open the musical production of PIPPIN with "Magic to do", the first high school to do so.

TRYING to help Pippin learn about women and their ways is Helene Dawson. In this production Pippin is played by Scott King, a freshman.

JENINE DESSAUSSOIS concentrates on playing her role of Pippin's stepmother. Liberty Playmakers were the first high school to produce Pippin.

'Pippin' Establishes First For Playmakers

BEFORE going into battle, Chris Blumen, Scott Crawford and Scott King take a moment to offer up prayers for success.

SINGING her hand dance and opening number is one of the leading players Tracy Laird in Pippin.

CAPTURED in a moment of glory by annual staff photographer, Max Wyman, is Scott Crawford who plays a King.

AS THE LEADING PLAYER TALKS the players' motion is frozen in time-perhaps to capture the audiences attention.

MECHANICALLY dancing to "War is a Science", are Charles' soldiers.

Career Center became a well-heard phrase around campus this past school year. With special finding we were able to house the new center in a portable building near the woodshop. Under the direction of Mr. Ron Overton, Career technician Mrs. April Weaver attempted to make career information, job placement and vocational plans available to all grades. If a student is unsure as to what to do, the center was able to give the interest surveys to assist them in matching their interests with possible occupations that would be suitable for them. The center assisted in helping the students to compare their SAT scores with possible vocational choices to see if the two were compatible. The computer in the center helped students to decide about their vocational choices by providing the following information: descriptions of vocations, how to trade schools and colleges, answers specific questions about different schools, visit file-people who have volunteered to talk about their own individual vocations (pros and cons) and a quest file that helps students decide on vocations by having them answer a series of 21 questions.

CURRICULUM

With the absence of Mr. Jerry Clayburn (on leave for a year) counselors took on an added responsibility as they had to handle their normal counseling load as well as deal with discipline problems of their own individual counselees.

New to the Liberty staff this year were Ms. Toni Gull, biology; Mrs. Sue Anderson, English; Mr. Art Santoyo, bilingual; Mr. William Mercado, social studies; Mrs. Barbar Rude, bilingual; and Mrs. Paula Kaplan, special education.

Mr. Ron Stewart became Dr. Stewart as he earned his doctorate degree this past year. Dr. Stewart initiated changes in the school which included a distinct separation of district and school.

After learning that funds for the 1979-80 school year would be reduced the entire district was forced to take a serious look at reducing the school day (to five periods) and staff (13 to be laid off). But with additional funds coming in staff reductions were to be kept to four temporary positions reduced and students would be allowed to take 6 classes.

Mrs. Carol Russell, in conjunction with departments, was faced with the task of developing competency tests.

THE NAVY.
IT'S NOT JUST A JOB,
IT'S AN ADVENTURE.

In the Navy, a job means more than just a good paycheck.

It means the adventure of seeing places like Greece, Spain, Hawaii and Hong Kong. It means becoming an expert on exciting technical equipment in our submarines, on our jets, and in our ships. It means doing a job that really counts, with people who count on you to do it.

The Navy can give you training in more than 60 career fields. Talk it over with your Navy recruiter. He'll be able to tell you what you can qualify for in the Navy:

MANAGER of sales this year was Gina Combs. This was her first year.

WORKING as Senior Class editor was Lisa Schwitters, who has been on staff for two years.

DONNA WESTHROPE was an assistant ads manager this year.

TRACY PAYNE did an excellent job as ads editor- one of the toughest jobs on staff.

This year has been a learning and growing experience for all involved in the making of this year's yearbook. Amidst flying erasers, pencils (anything throwable) loud voices and that constant radio, there were hours of grueling hard work. But in the end, the work pays off when, at the close of the year, we look back and see all of the new ideas in this book.

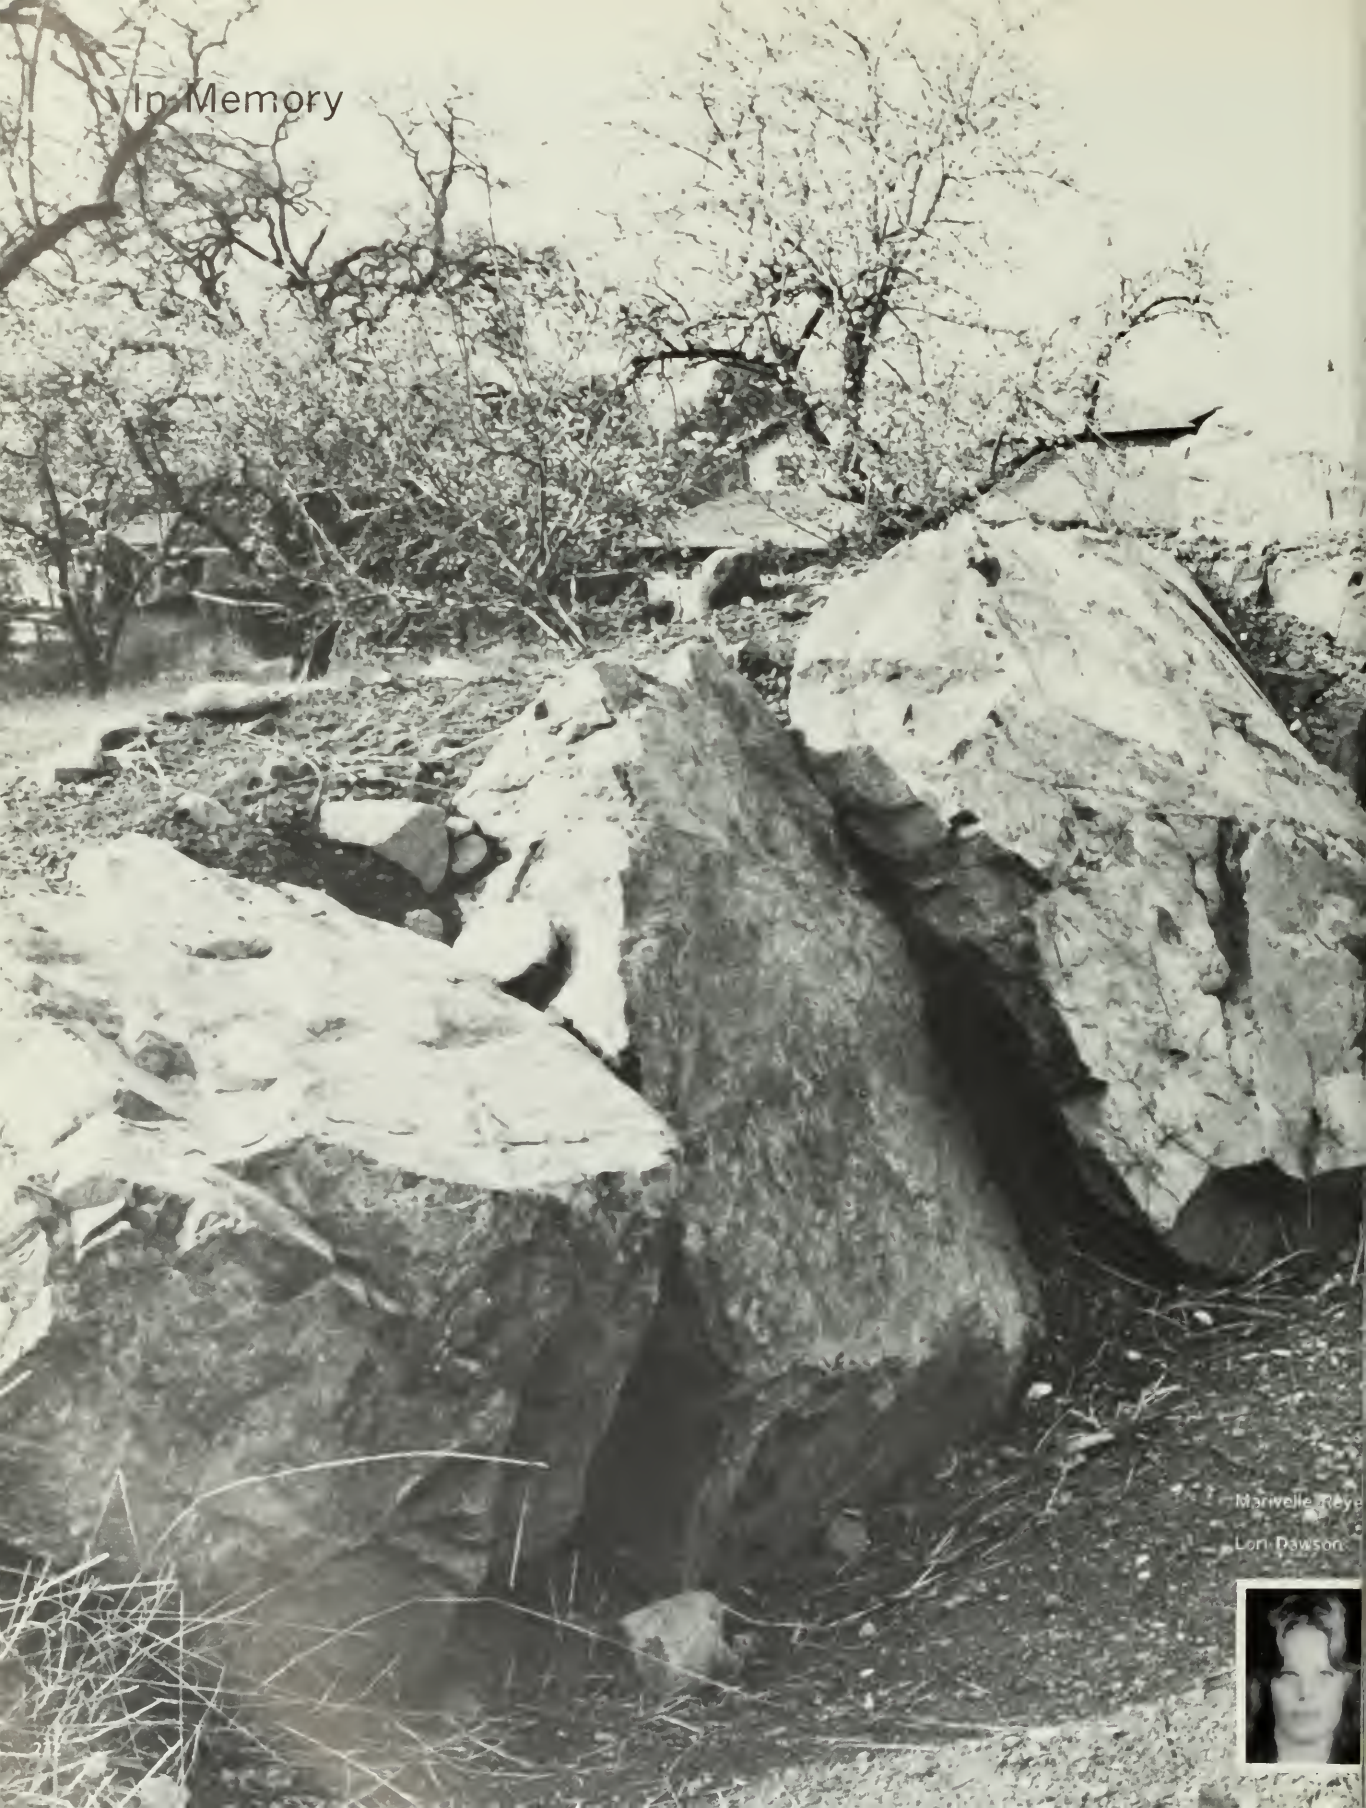

One of the main features we had in this year's yearbook was the expanded color section. Twelve pages of full color helped show the excitement of school and its activities. The all new parchment pages complete with brown ink showed the students of years past enjoying the same enthusiasm. The color section gave us a glimpse of today and the parchment a peek into the past. The elegant cover followed the same ideas with its traditional cardinal and inlaid gold lion. This all carried out the theme "Golden Reminiscence" which the whole staff chose at the beginning of the year. And for the time ever the Senior Class section was printed in full color.

I personally would like to thank all those who have helped out on the yearbook this year, I wish everyone much success as they go on in their future plans. I hope you enjoy your 79 LION, we tried to produce a book you would enjoy.

Sincerely
